FIRST IN THE TIMES

Through having the Sunday Evening Edition of The Times, Washington first learned yesterday afternoon that:

E. Bernard Stevens had mysteriously left the Emergency Hospital, where he had been cared for since he had been shot in the United States Savings Bank. Admiral Pendleton was to lose command of League Island Navy Yard, as an indirect result of the recent "Round Robin" circulated there. Another big steamer on the Great Lakes was missing as a result of the big storm, and several others were still unreported. Discovery of the hidden treasure of the Sultan was expected through the treachery of a servant in the palace. The Susquehanna river was approaching the flood stage.

Fort Myer officers and troopers had started on their ride to Richmond.
